Adoption - A Wonderful Option

Brian, Anita, and Nathan Crumby

Prior to Roe v. Wade, approximately 9% of babies born to never-married women under 45 were placed for adoption. Following Roe that number quickly dropped to 2% in the 1980s and then to 1% by 2002.

Sadly, adoption has nearly disappeared from our social fabric.

For every newborn placed for adoption, there are 36 couples yearning to adopt. Adoption is clearly a loving option for a mom and her baby in an unplanned pregnancy.

Our September guest, Nathan Crumby, will share his adoption story. Nathan grew up in a wonderful Christian home. Though his birth mother died before he had a chance to meet her, Nathan has developed a strong bond with his birth grandparents. They are all grateful that his mother chose Life!
